

HEBREWS LESSON 8

Hebrews 9:1-10:18

Christ came to do what the _____ could not do – to offer Himself as a perfect sacrifice to cleanse us of our sins.

What would it look like for us to collect _____ of God's faithfulness?

Our Inheritance

Therefore, he is the mediator of a new _____, so that those who are called might receive the promise of the eternal inheritance, because a death has taken place for redemption from the transgressions committed under the first _____. Where a _____ exists, the death of the one who made it must be established. For a _____ is valid only when people die, since it is never in effect while the one who made it is living. (Hebrews 9:15-17)

Christ's gift to us is our _____.

We have been saved from the _____ of sin and delivered from the _____ we deserved by the sacrificial death of Christ, but we're still living under the _____ of sin.

When Christ returns, He will restore His creation from the _____.

Remembering

Under the Old Covenant, sacrifices provided a _____ of their sins year after year. (Hebrews 10:3)

But under the New Covenant, Christ declares: "Their sins and their lawless deeds I will no longer _____." (Hebrews 10:17)

Under the New Covenant, we do not have an annual reminder of _____, but Christ gives us a regular reminder of the _____ that forgives it.

Christ has come once to save us from the _____ our sin deserved – to draw us to Himself. He will return to save us from the _____ of sin – to unroll His perfect and unshakeable kingdom upon this earth.
